

Formulation des questions:

Have you got [ears]?

- Yes, I have./No, I haven't./I don't know.

How many [legs] have you got?

- I've got [6 legs/no legs].

What colour is/are your...?

- It is.../they are... /I don't know.

Are you...?

- Yes, I am ! /No, I'm not ! / I don't know, can you spell?

Suggestion de jeu:

Matériel: Un groupe a les images de monstres, l'autre a les cartes d'identités (1 carte par élève).

But du jeu : retrouver son jumeau en se «promenant».

VERSION «CARTE D'IDENTITE»:

Ceux qui ont une carte d'identité posent des questions à ceux qui ont une image.

VERSION «TEXTE»: ceux qui ont un texte le lisent (après préparation silencieuse); ceux qui ont une image écoutent; si on se reconnaît, dire «Bingo! You are...»

Enjoy !

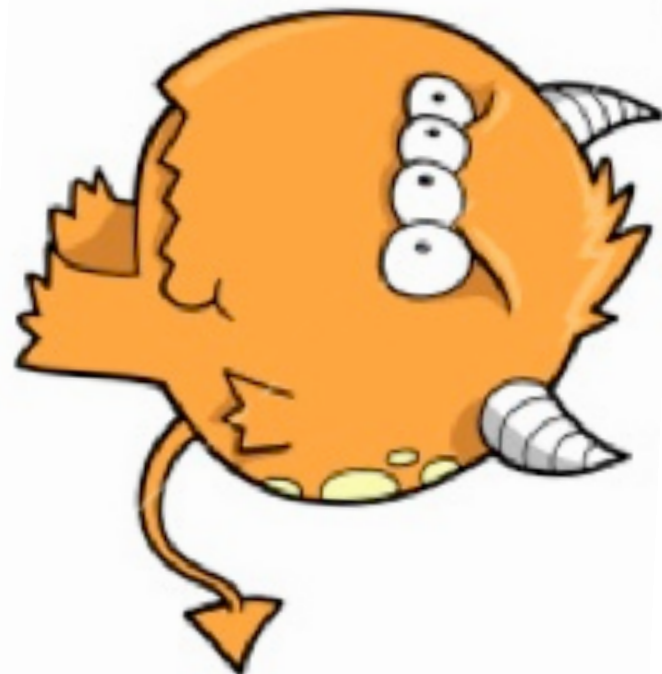

Céline Kartelaub

Remarques:

- En anglais, la marque du pluriel est présente avec «no», pour la plupart des noms dénombrables. (ex : no ears).
- Les cartes sont à voir avec les élèves avant de jouer, pour se mettre d'accord, savoir qu'on ne dénombre que ce que l'on voit, établir que les cornes ou antennes ne sont pas des oreilles, différencier bras/mains/jambes, etc.
- Version texte : lors de la préparation de lecture silencieuse, rappeler la prononciation de certains mots, insister sur le respect de la ponctuation.
- Ces textes sont proposés aussi en bande audio pour aider à la préparation, ou pour un jeu de compréhension orale. N'hésitez pas à les utiliser!
